THE FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR ARE GIVEN TO THE GLORY OF GOD

Children's Formation:Sunday Morning, 11/18 at 9:30am: "If you give me a son, I promise that I will dedicate him to you for his whole life and that he will never have his hair cut." (1Samuel 1:11) In this week's reading from the first book of Samuel, Hannah keeps her promise to dedicate her son to serve God. In today's homily, children hear today's story and sing Hannah's song of praise.

Adult Forum:

Sunday, 11/18 at 11:00am: Animate: Service. Serving others doesn't have to involve plane tickets. That was the lesson Enuma Okoro learned even as she prepared to live in yet another country and work with yet another mission-al organization. So how can we rethink our ideas of what it means to serve others? What might it look like to serve in subtle ways as well as through grand acts of service? What happens to us when we make service a regular practice and not an occasional event? Enuma found some answers right outside her front door. Will you?

It's Holiday Wish time again! We have the names of 60 children under the care of Franklin County Children Services to provide gifts for. The names will be available in the back hallway beginning TODAY and are due back to church no later than 11:00a.m., Sunday, December 9. Gifts total $50 per child. Please include batteries as indicated. Donations for older children are gratefully accepted (checks made to FCCS). Questions? Call or email Laura Leach, 614-678-1776, lgleach@hotmail.com.

November 18- Joint event with Prince of Peace. Together we will go to Jacob's Porch near OSU, serve them dinner and dessert, and stay for conversation and a unique worship experience. We meet at 6:15pm at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, 5475 Brand Road, Dublin before loading up food and heading out. St. Patrick's is responsible for dessert! Please bring a yummy sweet to share with some very grateful college students. We will return to St. Patrick's no later than 9:30pm. Jacob's Porch is a church serving college students in the Columbus area. "College is not just fun and games- life can get messy, and can challenge you to the core of your identity. So, at Jacob's Porch we have room to wonder who Jesus is and where he fits into our lives, what God is doing in the world, and how we can become a part of it."

Thanksgiving Day Worship Service at 10:00 a.m. on November 22nd. We have so much to be thankful for! Join us for a simple Thanksgiving Breakfast at 9:15 a.m. in the Parish Hall before the Thanksgiving Day Service at 10:00 a.m.

Episcopal Relief & Development invites you to partner with us as we support dioceses in their response to hurricanes and other tragic storms. Your contribution to Episcopal Relief & Development's Hurricane Relief Fund will support communities as they respond to the most recent storms. Your donation will meet urgent needs by providing critical supplies to those in need. Please find a donation form in Narthex.

Living Compass "Living Well Through Advent 2018" booklets are free and in the narthex and the Parish Hall for anyone who would like to have one. They will be distributed at the various Sacred Circle groups, but there will be plenty to go around. These booklets are a guided opportunity for centering ourselves through the Advent season as we approach the sometimes overwhelming holidays.

Sacrament, Story, and Sacred Land: An Episcopal Pilgrimage to Israel. Mother Cameron, Amy Collins, Heather Dudash, Bruce and Meribah Mansfield, along with others from the Diocese of Southern Ohio made their way through Israel and Jordan from October 15-28, 2018. Join us on Sunday, November 25 at 11:00am to hear about their pilgrim experience and view pictures highlighting the many sacred and holy places they saw. Mother Cameron will also be giving a presentation on Thursday, December 13 at 1:00pm.
